

Responding to the increasing demand for a VIP experience, a host of prestigious stores and lifestyle consultancies now offer a range of tailored personal shopping packages in Dubai

"We have early access to new arrivals from our clients' favourite designer brands to find for example just the right Burberry bag. We can also shop on behalf of clients who might not have time and can offer shopping from a private room if preferred. From a chauffeur-driven limousine to after-hours shopping for clients, there is no experience we can't deliver," says Kenny Onilogbo, chief concierge specialist at Fame Lifestyle.

Established in 2007 with a team of around 50 personal and luxury shoppers, the company goes the extra mile for its clients also arranging gourmet dining, spa treatments, styling services and city tours.

"During the initial consultation, we meet with the client to discuss their preferences. Our team has a strong network and collaborates with high-end stores and boutiques where we can offer discounts in some cases to clients. Dubai is a shoppers' paradise and we are here to help clients make the most of that," says Onilogbo.

With such an incredible array of retail choices to be made in Dubai, fashion maven Kelly Lundberg of StyleMe Divine, helps visitors plan their shopping schedules. "Dubai offers one of the most diverse

FOLLOW

Share

Add to

♥ Like

34/120

32 Read More at http://issuu.com/conciergemagazine/docs/05_dxb_online_ver_may13/34